

Risk Communication and Terrorism:

New Clinical Approaches

The First Annual Conference on Post-Deployment Care Risk Communication & Terrorism: New Clinical Approaches

Continuing Health Education Credits: Physicians, nurses, health care executives, psychologists and social workers are eligible for continuing health care credits for this conference. Please review your specific area regarding the accreditation statements. Your social security number will be necessary in order to receive the credits and will be asked when you register online or by mail.

Accreditation Statements Continuing Education for Physicians: The Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences (USUHS) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. USUHS designates this educational activity for category 1 credit towards the AMA Physician's Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

Continuing Education for Nurses: This activity is provided by USUHS, which is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Continuing Education for Healthcare Executives: USUHS is authorized to award pre-approved Category II (non-ACHE) continuing education credit for this program toward advancement, or re-certification in the American College of Healthcare Executives. Participants in this program wishing to have the continuing education hours applied toward Category II credit should list their attendance when applying for advancement or re-certification in ACHE.

American Psychological Association: "USUHS is approved by the American Psychological Association to offer continuing education for psychologists. USUHS maintains responsibility for the program. Please see information in the APA Continuing Education Pack for objectives and credit hours."

Social Work: "This course is sponsored by USUHS which is accredited as a provider of continuing education for social workers by the Maryland State Board of Social Work Examiners. This program has been awarded Category I continuing education credit. USUHS maintains responsibility for the program."

Other allied health professionals: A certificate of attendance will be provided for any allied health professionals or attendees at the conference.
